

TELECOM Headquarter, Rome IT

Rome, Italy

Type: Workspace

Location: Rome, IT

Year: 2015

Client: Alfiere S.p.A.

Cost: 80.000.000 €

Surface: 80.000 m2

Phase: Restricted Competition (5 offices)

Team: SCAPE Architects (architecture), SdARCH (Sustainable Architecture, Envelope, Bioclimatic)

The project of the new Headquarter of Telecom is a restricted competition of Alfiere S.p.A., a mixed company with Telecom and Cassa Depositi e Prestiti, a public company.

The object of the competition is a large office building in EUR area in Roma, built in 1960 in a classic modern international style, designed by architect C. Ligini. The brief of the competition is to keep the historical meaning of this important project for Rome but to renew the facades, the layout and the technology of the building to meet the needs of the future Headquarter of the Telecom company.

Other Information:

Ariatta Engineering (MEP), United Consulting (LEED), Milan Engineering (Structure)